DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lu et al. (PN 6,008,540).

Lu et al. discloses, as shown in Figures 1g and 2b, an integrated circuit structure which comprises a substrate (102);

a layer of a first polymeric dielectric material (142,242 or 144,244) on the substrate;

a plurality of spaced apart metal contacts (160,260) on the layer of the first dielectric material;

a space between adjacent metal contacts, each space being filled with a second polymeric dielectric material (144,244 or 172,272);

Art Unit: 2811

a recess in the filled spaces of the layer of the second polymeric dielectric material extending from a level at a top of the metal contacts a part of the distance toward the substrate;

an additional layer (172,272 or 174,274) of the first polymeric dielectric material on at least some of the metal contacts and in the recesses on the filled spaces of the second polymeric dielectric material such that there is optionally a gap in at least one of the recesses of the additional layer first polymeric dielectric material at a side wall of a metal contact;

at least one via extending through the additional layer of the first polymeric dielectric material extending to the top of at least one of the metal contacts and optionally to the gap; wherein the first dielectric material and the second dielectric material have substantially different etch resistance properties. Note at Col. 5, lines 16-49, Lu et al. discloses more levels will be formed by repetition steps (4)-(15), therefore, it is inherent that there is the via extending through the additional layer of the first polymeric dielectric.

With regard to claim 6, Lu et al. discloses the via is filled with at least one metal.

With regard to claim 7, Lu et al. discloses the first dielectric material (142,242,172,174) is organic (xerogel) and the second dielectric material (144,244,174,274) is inorganic (HSQ).

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 5 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Art Unit: 2811

Conclusion

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
